

Florian Leonhard Fine Violins

With over 40 years of experience working with the finest instruments in existence, Florian Leonhard Fine Violins offers a comprehensive range of violins, violas, cellos and their bows, all backed by world-leading in-house expertise. Their certification process is backed by four decades of expertise, and close monitoring of global fine instrument sales. Valuation depends on condition, quality, materials, but most of all authenticity, and so only an expert is well placed to properly value an instrument or bow. A certificate from Florian Leonhard Fine Violins is acknowledged worldwide as a reliable record of expert authentication.

Instrument exhibition at the SIMA 2026

Have you ever wanted to play a Stradivarius or a Guarneri? You can do just that at SIMA 2026. Florian Leonhard Fine Violins will be presenting a collection of historical and new instruments that visitors can try out. He will also be giving a lecture entitled “The Sherlock Holmes of the Violin World” on the violin making of yesterday and today.
